REESE - LUCIUS HOME
Eutaw, Greene County, Alabama.
Wilson Street.

Ownership:

Present Owner: Mrs. J. C. Lucius: From 1896 to Present time.

Previous Owners: Edwin Reese: From 1859 to 1896.

Date of Erection: 1859.

Architect: Unknown.

Builder: Edwin Reese.

Present Condition: Very good state of preservation. The house remains as originally built, with the exception of a small porch and bath added about twenty years ago. The servants house remains intact, and in good condition.

Materials of Construction: Frame house, with brick pillar foundation. The exterior walls on the front are of 8" drop siding, the side and rear walls are of 6" heart of pine weatherboarding. It has four exterior chimneys, and four round fluted columns, which stand on brick pillar foundations. The porch floor only extends to the edge of the columns. There is a balcony over the front door with wooden railings. It has two colonial doors on the front, one to each story, the walls are plastered, and in good condition. The floors are of 8" heart of pine flooring. There are two stairways, one in the main hall, which extends from the left front to the left rear, and one which ascends from a side porch on the right of the house. The living room and dining room are connected with large, double sliding doors.
